at 0400 on Friday 12 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny spells and, in east, snow showers.

Today:
Rather cloudy in the east with occasional snow showers, however western Aberdeenshire and Moray largely dry with long sunny spells. Another bitterly cold day with temperatures struggling to rise above freezing in places despite the freshening southeasterly breeze. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tonight:
Snow showers across eastern parts becoming more isolated, otherwise dry with some long clear spells. Widespread sub-zero temperatures, not as low as recent nights due to the southeasterly breeze. Minimum temperature -5 deg C (23 deg F).

Saturday:
Remaining snow showers in the east soon dying out to leave a dry day with sunny spells. However it will feel bitterly cold in the occasionally strong southeasterly breeze. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Bright morning Sunday but outbreaks of snow spreading east in afternoon, perhaps turning to rain later. Occasional rain Monday and Tuesday but also some brighter spells, milder with winds easing.
